

Selina Midkiff & Rollo Dilworth,
Festival Directors

Dr. Rollo Dilworth is an active conductor, educator and clinician who has taught choral music at the elementary, secondary and university levels. He is a contributing author for the Essential Elements for Choir textbook series and for Music Express teachers magazine. His research interests are in African American music and music education curriculum and instruction. Dilworth is an award-winning composer, and his choral compositions are a part of Hal Leonard publications.

Mrs. Selina Midkiff is the founder and artistic director of the Appalachian Children's Chorus (ACC). She has a bachelor's and master's degree in music education from West Virginia University. Mrs. Midkiff has studied children's choral techniques and conducting with such renowned conductors as Henry Leck, Barbara Tagg, Doreen Rao and Sandra Snow. Because of her work with ACC, she and the choir received the 2015 Spirit Award from the WV Music Hall of Fame. In 2016, she received an honorary doctorate of music from the University of Charleston.

Ron Sowell

Mr. Sowell serves as co-director for the festival. He is best known for his role as the music +director of the internationally acclaimed public radio show, Mountain Stage. Ron is also a dynamic singer/songwriter, guitarist performer and producer. We so happy to have him as an artistic consultant.

wvacc.org/events/appalachian-festival-young-voices

APPALACHIAN
FESTIVAL OF YOUNG
VOICES

June 22-25, 2018

You are invited!

We invite treble choirs from around the country to register. It can be a childrens choir program that represents a community, school, or church. The choristers' age range should be between nine and 18.

Festival fee includes:

- 4 nights of lodging
- 8 meals (4 breakfasts, 1 lunch and 3 dinners)
- Square dance with live music
- Festival handbook
- Festival monogrammed polo
- Visit to FestivALL
- Private rehearsal time with Dr. Rollo Dilworth
- Children's choir music workshops/rehearsals
- Professional storyteller
- Q & A time with Dr. Rollo Dilworth, and Ron Sowell, director of Mountain Stage
- Final performance in the Civic Center Little Theater
- Performance with classical orchestra and a world class string band
- Farewell Party on the River Queen riverboat with a live DJ & dancing
- One complimentary trip per 25 paying choristers is provided

Transport to and from Charleston, WV is the responsibility of the individual choirs.

Schedule

Friday:

Check in, rehearsal, Welcome Dinner & story time

Saturday:

Two rehearsals, free time, special lunch for artistic staff, full ensemble rehearsal with string band, Q&A session

Sunday:

Two rehearsals, FestivALL's Capitol St. Art Fair, free time, dinner, square dance party

Monday:

Ensemble rehearsal with orchestra and string band, private rehearsal time with Dr. Dilworth, dinner at concert venue, performance and farewell party on River Queen riverboat.

Tuesday:

Breakfast and depart for home

*Solo concerts by visiting choirs occur each evening in the Embassy ballroom.

Visit a beautiful, safe river city!

"The accommodations were excellent and the logistics made it one of the easiest tours we have ever done. Thank you again for a very meaningful festival experience, and one I would recommend to others.

- LuAnn Holden, Chattanooga Girls Chorus

The singers were definitely the main focus throughout the event. Combined with your musical direction and that of Dr. Dilworth's, they've had a higher-level musical experience—especially geared for this age singer.

-Anne Saxon, Founding Artistic Director--Central Carolina Children's Chorus

"Our short time was filled with such rich events! My kids had such a good time – they really loved it and appreciated how friendly the other singers were towards them."

-Diane Simons, South Bay Children's Choir

"...a gift to the world."

- Paul Caldwell

This festival is a "one of a kind" experience that will prove to be both musically and culturally enriching for all participants.

- Dr. Rollo Dilworth

Festival Features:

- Individual and festival choir performance at Charleston's Civic Center Little Theater
- 4 nights at Charleston's luxurious Embassy Suites Hotel
- Performance with a traditional string band and orchestra
- Participation in Charleston's city-wide cultural event, FestivALL
- Individual choir time with Dr. Dilworth
- Amazing opportunity to personally interact with composer/conductor Dr. Dilworth, singer/songwriter Ron Sowell
- Square dancing with live music
- Appalachian storytelling
- Party on River Queen riverboat

Registration Information

- For questions and an information packet about the festival, please call 304.343.1111, visit our Web site at wvacc.org or e-mail selina@wvacc.org.
- Interested choirs should complete the application form found on our Web site and submit it along with an audio or video audition tape and a $500 nonrefundable deposit fee to the Appalachian Children's Chorus.

Registration Deadline: December 1, 2017